

2007 USSSA Fast Pitch Umpire's Test

NUMBER	QUESTION
1	The batter runner touches only the white portion of a double first base while there is a play at first. Even without interfering, the batter runner is automatically out.
2	The catcher is wearing a hockey style helmet with no throat protector. This is Legal
3	Jewelry is legal if properly taped
4	Soft bracelets like the Lance Armstrong style wristbands are considered jewelry.
5	Medical alert bracelets are considered jewelry.
6	R1 while running to 2B removes her helmet. She should be declared out.
7	It is legal for a team to attach a face mask/guard to a helmet using a manufacture approved procedure.
8	The shortstop may wear a first baseman's mitt.
9	The pitcher may wear a gray glove.
10	An approved fan may be attached to a bat to warm up.
11	Even though, the umpire can not read the words "Official Softball" on a bat, he shall consider it legal if it is legal in all other respects.
12	A bat without the markings "USSSA BPF 1.20" is illegal.
13	It is considered a legal foul tip if the ball goes directly from the bat to the catcher's hands and is legally caught by the catcher. Any foul tip is a strike and the ball becomes dead.
14	The Strike Zone goes from the forward armpit to the top of the knees.
15	After three balls, the batter crouches extremely low before the next pitch, the umpire shall determine the batter's strike zone according to the new stance.
16	The batter squares to bunt and holds the bat still as the pitch goes outside. The pitch should be ruled a bunt attempt and a strike.
17	At the pre-game conference, the umpire should ask the coaches if their players are legally and properly equipped.
18	Obstruction has to be an intentional act.
19	There must be physical contact for obstruction.
20	F4 fakes a tag. It is obstruction only if R1 reacts to the fake.
21	A new inning shall begin with a pitch thrown to the first batter of an inning.
22	A batted ball which hits the infield in fair territory, goes over third base in the air and lands in the outfield in foul territory is a fair ball.
23	F5 with both feet completely in fair territory contacts a fly ball which is over foul territory. This is a foul ball.
24	After the umpire declares an infield fly, the ball is not caught and rolls untouched into foul territory. Since infield fly was declared, the batter is out.
25	With no outs and bases loaded, B4 bunts but the ball goes up high toward the pitcher. Even though the pitcher can easily catch the ball, It should not be ruled an infield fly.
26	In the 9th inning, the pitcher is to be placed on 2nd base under the tiebreaker procedure. Because she did not bat, she is not eligible for a courtesy runner.
27	A team may play with one less player than it started with for any reason.
28	When a team is left with a vacant spot in the lineup because of the removal of a player, the opposing team with two (2) outs may not walk the previous batter, in order to get to the "automatic out" created by the vacant spot in the batting order.
29	A player who have leaves the game without a substitute cannot return to the lineup except under the blood rule.
30	The additional player can play defense at any time.
31	An additional player can be added to the lineup at any time before the team has completely batted around.
32	The designated hitter (DH) may re-enter.
33	Amy is DH'ing for Betty. Mary is injured. Since the team only has 10 players, Betty is allowed to replace Mary in the batting order.
34	There shall be only one charged conference between the manager or other team representative from the dugout with each and every pitcher in an inning.
35	There shall be only one charged conference between the manager or other team representative from the dugout in each extra inning.
36	A strike will be called on the batter if more than one offensive charged conference occurs in any one inning.

2007 USSSA Fast Pitch Umpire's Test

38	S1 enters the game for R1 unreported. S1 is declared out.
39	During first inning warm ups, F1 is withdrawn from the game. She can re-enter but may not pitch.
40	All substitutes may re-enter the game once.
41	A player who improperly re-enters is ejected.
42	Amy bats for Betty and hits a bases loaded triple. Before the next pitch, it is discovered she made an improper re-entry. Amy is out and ejected but all 3 runs score.
43	Prior to the pitch, the pitcher must have both feet on or touching the pitcher's plate.
44	When the pitcher brings the hands together, the hands must be motionless.
45	A step backward has to start before the hands come together.
46	The pitched ball must be released the first time past the hip.
47	The pitcher may not wear a batting helmet while on defense.
48	If the ball slips from the pitcher's hand during the back swing, a ball is called on the batter and the ball is live.
49	If the batter hits an illegal pitch and reaches first base safely and all other runner advance at least one base, the illegal pitch is nullified. No option is given
50	An improper batter is considered to be at bat as soon as he enters the batters box.
51	B1 walks. B3 bats and hits into a fielder's choice. Defensive appeals batting out of order. B2 is out for not batting; B3 is removed from base; B1 is returned to 1B. One out and B3 bats.
52	B1 walks. B3 bats and hits into a double play. Defensive appeals batting out of order. B2 is out for not batting; B1's out stands but B3's out is superseded by B2's. Two outs and B3 bats.
53	B1 walks. B3 bats. B1 steals 2B and 3B on the first two pitches. With a 3-2 count, defensive appeals batting out of order. B3 is replaced by B2 and B1 remains at 3B. No outs. Count remains 3-2.

55	A penalty strike is charged to the batter when batter delays the game by failing to promptly take her position.
56	B1 is leaning over the plate and gets hit in the elbow which is in the strike zone. B1 is awarded 1B.
57	As the pitcher starts her motion, B1 holds up his hand for time, any pitched ball should be called a strike.
58	B1 hits the ball with half of the left foot outside the batters box and on the ground at the time of contact. B1 should be called out.
59	With no outs, R1 is stealing home. B2 steps in front of F2 and interferes with her. B2 is out and R1 is returned to 3B.
60	With no outs, R1 is stealing 2B. B2 swings at strike 3 but F2 does not catch the ball. B2 is out even though R1 is no longer on 1B.
61	The batter bunts the ball and the ball rebounds up against the bat a second time while being held by the batter who is still in the batters box. This is a foul ball
62	The batter bunts the ball and drops the bat between the ball and the foul line. The bat rolls into the ball on fair territory. The ball is dead, B1 is out and baserunners may not advance.
63	Under the Look Back Rule, unless the pitcher looks at the runner, the runner is not out.
64	After the batter reaches First base and the pitcher has possession of the ball within the 16 foot circle, a runner who is legitimately off a base may stop once but then must immediately attempt to advance to the next base or return to the last base touched.
65	The pitcher gets on base. The next two batters strike out. The offensive can still put a courtesy runner in for the pitcher.
66	S1 is used as a courtesy runner for the pitcher in the first inning. S1 can be used as a courtesy runner for the catcher in the second inning.
67	Amy was a starter and replaced by a substitute. She may be used as a courtesy runner.
68	S1 is used as a courtesy runner for the pitcher. S1 is injured sliding into second base. S2 can be used as a courtesy runner for the injured player.
69	With R1 on 3B, the catcher contacts B2's bat as she swings. The ball goes into the outfield. R1 scores and B2 reaches 1B. Catcher Obstruction is ignored.
70	B1 walks, touches 1B and continues past 1B turning to her right in foul territory. While returning directly to 1B, F3 tags B1. B1 is out.

2007 USSSA Fast Pitch Umpire's Test

71	R1 on 1B is stealing as B2 lines out to F6. R1 is retreating to 1B when F6 throws the ball over F3's head and out of play. R1 is awarded 3B.
72	Ball four is a wild pitch which goes out of play. The batter is awarded 1B.
73	F5 attempts a swipe tag and loses the ball out of play. Each runner is awarded one base from the last base touched at the time F5 lost control of the ball.
